

Virtual Ward Testing

Advance patient care by bringing critical testing patient-side with the epoc® NXS Blood Analyser

siemens-healthineers.com/epocnxs

epoc NXS Blood Analyser

The epoc NXS® is a handheld Blood Analysis System which brings critical blood testing to the patient side anywhere, anytime.

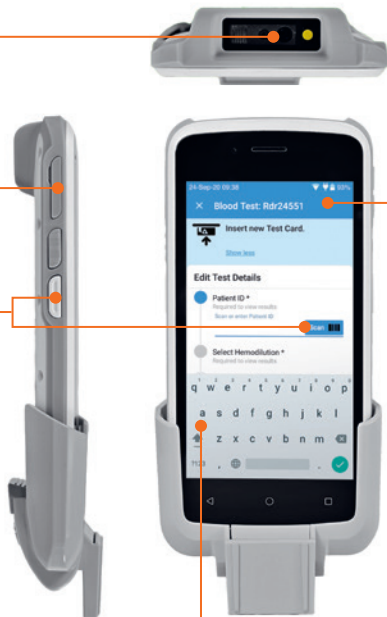

Powered by Android, with advanced processing speed and expanded memory to deliver critical results where they are needed most

Integrated 1D/2D barcode scanner

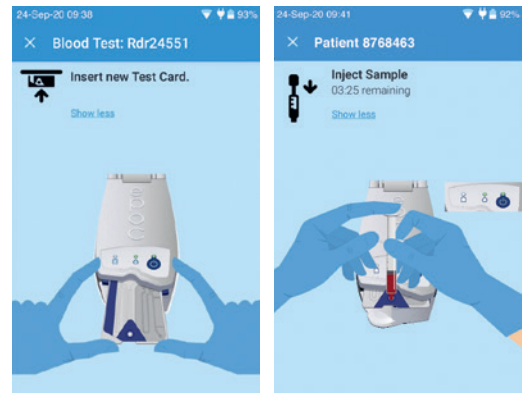

Easy microSD accessibility

Activate barcode scanner from both hardware and software

5 inch, vibrant, HD resolution glove-ready touchscreen with a large onscreen keyboard

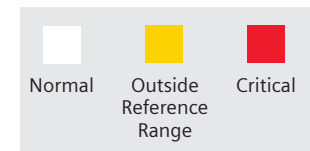

Slim, lightweight, consumer-based design

Intuitive user interface and prompt-based workflow design with animated user guidance to support experts and novice users.

Secure WIFI and Bluetooth connection

Color-coded results

Critical results reporting

- Portable Blood Testing Analyser with laboratory quality results.
- Comprehensive menu consisting of; Blood Gases, Electrolytes, Glucose, Lactate, Urea, Creatinine and haematocrit.
- Actionable results in less than 1 minute at the patient's side.
- Single room temperature test card.
- Transforming community and pre-hospital care to improve patient outcomes.

For more information contact:

James Mobberley

Business Development Manager Point of Care.

Mobile: +44 7808 008 269 Email: james.mobberley@siemens-healthineers.com